

Workshop summary

Teaching the Holocaust: the question of understanding and feedback from students

The workshop stimulates dialogue among participants based on their personal experience in teaching Holocaust and related matters. The workshop is held in the form of a focused discussion based on questions and cases presented by the facilitator and shared teaching experience by the participants.