

Lecture Summary

The workshop is dedicated to the development of students' critical thinking skills through practical work with primary sources of various types. Group work is the main form of the workshop and aim is to give a practical example of the use of digital tools in online teaching. Learning objectives is to developing historical awareness by studying and remembering the Holocaust.

Mire Mladenovski