

BIOGRAPHY

Serbia, North Macedonia, Albania - Belgrade 2023

Speaker : Marta Havryshko

Marta Havryshko holds PhD. in history. She is an Associate Researcher at the Department of Contemporary History at the I. Krypiakevych Institute of Ukrainian Studies of Ukrainian National Academy of Sciences. Also, currently Havryshko is a postdoctoral research fellow at Yad Vashem. In the following year she will be a visiting research fellow at the Vienna Wiesenthal Institute for Holocaust Studies. Her research interests are primarily focus on gender, sexuality, and violence during World War II, feminism, nationalism, and militarism. Currently, she develops her research project on sexual violence during the Holocaust in Nazi-occupied Ukraine. Havryshko was a recipient of a number of fellowships and grants. Her research has been supported by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Yahad-In Unum, Monash University, DAAD, European Cooperation in Science and Technology, and others.