

Speaker:

Marius Cazan

The Holocaust in Romania, a comparative approach

My aim is to present the main characteristics, stages and historical realities that took place during the Holocaust in Romania. Also, I have the intention to reflect together with the group and find some common angles to look at the history and destiny of the Jewish communities in Romania, even if the Holocaust experience was different from a region to another, from a community to another.