

PREPARATORY DOCUMENTS

Cluj 2024

Speaker:

Marius Cazan

The Holocaust in Romania, a comparative approach

The photo is from the summer of 1941, somewhere near Iasi and shows people aboard a passing passenger train view the corpses of Iasi “death train” victims that have been dumped next to the tracks.

Photo credit: HISTORISCHES ARCHIV DER STADT KOELN

A brief background material on Iasi Pogrom is available here:

<https://www.france24.com/en/tv-shows/revisited/20220325-romania-s-ia%C8%99i-pogrom-one-of-the-worst-massacres-of-jews-during-wwii>

Starting from this picture, I urge you to reflect on the attitude that non-Jewish citizens had during the Holocaust...and by the way, what does "a resilient society" mean to you nowadays?