The participant-centered methodology

This workshop is designed to empower educators with the knowledge and skills needed to implement engaging and locally relevant educational programs. This innovative workshop introduces a participatory-based educational methodology, emphasizing collaborative approaches that involve students in the creation of local-historical projects. Throughout the session, teachers will delve into the principles of participatory learning, exploring ways to foster a sense of shared responsibility and community engagement in the educational process. The workshop will provide practical insights into implementing the building blocks of this methodology, guiding participants through interactive exercises and discussions.
