

BIOGRAPHY

Italy, Slovenia, Croatia - Trieste 2023

Speakers: Petra Urek (SLO), Walter Tomada (IT), Loranda Miletić (HR), Ana Nikolić (HR)

Petra Urek is a history and history of art primary school teacher from Slovenia. In last couple of years, she has been actively participating in seminars from Yad Vashem, Centropa and Memorial de la Shoah. Petra took part in the seminar "Holocaust as a starting point, Adriatic dialogue round 4" in March 2022 in Zagreb and subsequently cooperated with fellow colleague, Ana Nikolić from Croatia and Walter Tomada from Italy to develop the learning activity "Standing women on the Rolling Borders«.

Walter Tomada is a Literature and History high school teacher from Italy. He has developed multilingual teaching projects and CLIL modules and has written several essays and articles in Italian about the history of the Friuli region. He took part in the seminar "Holocaust as a starting point, Adriatic dialogue round 4" in March 2022 in Zagreb and subsequently cooperated with fellow colleague, Ana Nikolić from Croatia and Petra Urek from Slovenia to develop the learning activity "Standing women on the Rolling Borders".

Loranda Miletić (HR)

Works as a Senior Advisor for History Education at the Education and Teacher Training Agency. For the last 18 years, she has been in charge of promoting and coordinating Teaching and Learning about the Holocaust in the Republic of Croatia, including organizing seminars for teachers on regional and national levels, developing additional teaching materials, and participating in international projects.

She is a member of the Croatian delegation at the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance.