

BIOGRAPHY

Ljubljana 2024

Speaker

Monika Kokalj Kočever

Occupation systems in Slovenia during the WW2, regarding forced mobilisation into the German army on the territory of today's Slovenia

Dr. Monika Kokalj Kočever, historian, born 1963, Ljubljana, Slovenia. Museums Councillor, in National Museum of Contemporary History, Ljubljana, Slovenia. Research topics: Slovenian forced and slave labourers in WW2, forcibly mobilisation of Slovenes into the Wehrmacht, Resistance in Slovenia. Member of Comité International de Mauthausen, member of Scientific Advisory Board of Mauthausen Memorial, member of the Slovenian Delegation to the IHRA, Vice president of Coordination committee of victims of war violence at The Union of the Associations for the Values of the National Liberation Movement of Slovenia.