

BIOGRAPHY

Ljubljana 2024

Speaker

Petra Urek (SLO)

Standing women on rolling boarders

Petra Urek works as a primary teacher of history and social studies at the Primary School in Hoče, near Maribor. In the last couple of years, she has been actively participating in seminars organized by Yad Vashem, Centropa, and the Memorial de la Shoah. She has been tasked with promoting, coordinating international projects, developing additional teaching materials, teaching, and conducting workshops that address extremely sensitive issues regarding World War II. Petra took part in the seminar "Holocaust as a Starting Point, Adriatic Dialogue Round 4" in March 2022 in Zagreb and subsequently collaborated with her colleague, Ana Nikolić from Croatia, and Walter Tomada from Italy to develop the learning activity "Standing Women on the Rolling Borders." She has been promoting and educating other teachers, both in primary and secondary schools, about this workshop.