

Speaker : Renata Ozorlic Dominic

Dealing with controversial issues in the classroom

The workshop gives basic information on controversy and why it is important to deal with this issue in educational environments. After the workshop the participant will be able to: describe what a controversial issue is, list potential risks in mishandling discussions on controversial issues, define which teaching strategies are advisable for effective dealing with controversial issues.

Tools: laptop and projector for ppt; flipchart and pens