

BIOGRAPHY

Lithuania and Poland - Warsaw 2023

Speaker : Agnieszka Haska

Agnieszka Haska is a cultural anthropologist and sociologist working at Polish Center for Holocaust Research, Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences. In her work she is interested in researching various topics about Holocaust in Poland, from the problem of collaboration and escapes from the occupied Poland to the contemporary politics of memory. She is an author of books: "I am a Jew, I want to come in. Hotel Polski in Warsaw, 1943" (2006) and "Dishonor. Stories about Polish treason" (2018). Haska is also an author of many articles and editor of wartime diaries and documents.