Visit to Doxato, Drama

The small town of Doxato in the Drama area is a Greek national symbol in Greek Macedonia, which repeatedly paid a heavy blood tax during the period from the Balkan Wars until the aftermath of the Second World War- the era of national competition in the Balkans which now Greeks and Bulgarians have left behind.

The visit includes:

- Short tour to the places of martyrdom.
- Visit at the Cultural Center of Doxato, where -among many others- a permanent collection offers a rich photographic heritage about the town's Holocausts.
- Walking or a bus tour to the center of the small town with the neoclassical buildings.
