

BIOGRAPHY

Greece, North Macedonia, Bulgaria - Kavala 2022

Speaker : Mišo Dokmanović

Prof. dr. iur Mišo Dokmanović is Full Professor at the School of law, Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. He teaches courses History of Law and Contemporary Macedonian History at the undergraduate studies and Balkans and US Diplomacy and Contemporary History and Diplomacy of the Middle East at the MA program. He has participated in conferences, study visits and lectured in over 50 countries. Dr. Dokmanović was a Research/Visiting Fellow and Lecturer at a number of leading academic institutions including Princeton University, University of Michigan, University of Florida, University of Illinois, universities in Bonn, Graz, Vienna, Poznan, Moscow, Cracow etc.

In October 2017, dr. Dokmanović has been appointed a Member of the Delegation of North Macedonia to the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance. In 2021, he was awarded 13 November Award – highest award of the City of Skopje for contribution to Science and Higher Education (est. 1955). In 2022, professor Dokmanović has been awarded the Goce Delcev Award - Highest National Award for Science of North Macedonia (est. 1949) for his book Alone on Our Own: Short History of Macedonian Independence (1990-1993), Skopje, Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, 2021.

Professor Dokmanović has attended 2008 Yad Vashem School on Holocaust Studies in Jerusalem and co-authored the official Ann Frank exhibition in North Macedonia.