Antisemitic policies in South Eastern Europe

The main objective of the lecture is to familiarize the participants with key-features of antisemitic policies in Bulgaria, Greece and Yugoslavia before and during World War II. Several sources from the period of World War II will be utilized for this purpose. Special focus will be put on the analysis of different approaches in this respect as well as the actual culmination of Antisemitic policies – the implementation of the “final solution” of the Jews in South East Europe.
