

LECTURE/WORKSHOP SUMMARY

Greece, North Macedonia, Bulgaria - Sofia 2023

Speaker: Assoc. Prof. Albena Taneva, PhD

The lecture examines the content of Holocaust remembrance and, in particular, the stages of memory for those years in the Bulgarian and Balkan political context.

Dynamics of the narrative are traced more specifically in regard to the public messages and the learning environment and the possibilities for transnational partnership policies in the study of history and more specifically in the study of the Holocaust legacy.
