

Biography

Prof. dr. Jože Pirjevec, PhD, Full Member of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Research Counsellor, born in Trieste, 1 June 1940.

Education

1966, graduates at the Faculty of Arts, University of Trieste

1967/1969, studies at Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa

1969/1971, studies at the Diplomatic Academy in Vienna

1971, Master, Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa

1976, PHD, University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Arts.

Titles, employment

1971/1977, Assistant Professor / History of Eastern Europe, Faculty of Political and Social Science, University of Pisa

1977/1985, Assistant Professor/History of Slavic Nations, Faculty of Arts, University of Trieste

1986/1995, Full Professor/History of Eastern Europe, Faculty of Political Sciences, University of Padua

1996/2003, Head of the Department for Slavic Studies, Faculty of Arts, University of Trieste

1996/2003 Research Counsellor at the Science and Research Centre. Koper

2002/2016 Full Professor at the Faculty of Humanities, University of Primorska, Koper

Currently Research Counsellor at the Science and Research Centre, Koper.

Last monographs: "Tito and his comrades", published till now in 10 languages.

Partizani, Cankarjeva založba, Ljubljana, 2020.