

Workshop summary:

Fiction films and the Holocaust

This workshop will focus on three fiction films that can be used for Holocaust education: Denial (2016), The reader (2008), Die Well (2008). Our aim will be to critically assess these films and suggest specific topics that can be elaborated. The workshop will conclude with suggested activities for the classroom.

Alexandra Patrikiou