

Workshop summary:
Teaching about conflicting attitudes towards Jews during WWII

The topic of my workshop is conflicting attitudes towards Jews during WWII. I will focus on our three countries, Bulgaria, Greece and North Macedonia. After the brief overview and discussion on historical facts, we will comment and analyze a series of photographs, maps, and audiovisual material that can be used in the classroom, so as to introduce this difficult subject. The workshop will conclude with suggested activities for the classroom.

Alexandra Patrikiou