

Summary

Nicolas Patin (Université Bordeaux Montaigne)

The Nazi « vision of the world »

*

This conference aims to explain the cultural and social origins of the Nazi “world view”. It insists on the European character of the ideological foundations of the National Socialism, while showing why it was in Germany, and not elsewhere, that this movement took root. It also invites us to question the real importance of these ideas within the Third Reich.