

Workshop Summary: Racial prejudice: how to deal with?

The goal of the workshop is to help the teachers understand the historical foundations of racism, their ensuing representations, and political consequences. Based on historical document from various eras, the workshop will enable teachers to trace the imagery and vocabulary developed throughout history and especially during the colonial era. The workshop will also suggest educational activities to elaborate for pupils.

Fabrice Teicher